Contact person:

State name, address, e-mail and telephone to the person that Ekhagastiftelsen should contact. It is to this address that we will send mail.

Do not use more than the 7 rows visible in the form.

Managing body/person:

This is the body/organization/person who is responsible for and keeps accounts for the grant – the official applicant.

When the official applicant is a person both fields (“contact person” and “managing body/person”) should be the same.

If managing body is not a person write the organizations name on the first row and department/institution etc on the following rows (see example above).

In many cases the addresses in both fields will be the same, but sometimes the contact person may have different address information from the official applicant.

Do not use more than the 7 rows visible in the form.
